Agenda:

Approval of last meeting minutes -

Council unanimously approved minutes without changes.

Review LAND Trust Plan and CSIP-

The LAND Trust Plan was reviewed, discussed and unanimously approved. LAND Trust funding will be used for grade level instructional aides to continue with reading assistance and incorporate a math focus as well. The strategies for teaching will remain the same and aides will work with all students. Instructional aides will assist with skill based instruction and work directly with each teacher. The LAND Trust goal will be to get to benchmark in math and reading in 3 years. The LAND Trust plan and CSIP were unanimously approved and signed.

School Logo Redesign-

Principal Baker discussed a school logo redesign project. Canyons District employs a graphic designer that will design a logo, letterhead, banners and various other media for Midvalley. The school colors will remain the same; red, white and blue. Zachary Zabriskie and Brittany Halterman will be on the committee..

Upcoming School Events-

Kindergarten Orientation is this week. The Multi-cultural fair will be on May 30 and will also celebrate Midvalley's 60th birthday.

Other Discussions-

Ipads have arrived and Principal Baker is planning to apply for LEXIA funding.

Meeting ended at 5:30 P.M.
